I always looked forward every summer to see my cousins, Uncle Charlie and Aunt Ramona from Florida. We had some good times playing in and around that old red house. Time does have a way of changing things, however, nothing can take away the wealth of wonderful memories you have of your mom. We know where she is- a place of joy and peace and she will always be in your hearts. Just wanted to let you know that I'm thinking about you. Aunt Ramona was a wonderful lady.
