Luanne M Taylor

AUG 26, 1932 - NOV 23, 2015

Luanne M. (Tinker) Taylor, age 83, of Deltona, Fla., died Monday, November 23, 2015. She was born in Wakeman, Ohio, on August 26, 1932, the fourth of eight children. Luanne was preceded in death her husband, Gene A.; and son, Brett E. She is survived by her six children, Michael A. (Linda), Vermilion, Ohio; Marshall S., Orange City, Fla.; Robert E. (Pam), Deltona, Fla.; Todd S. (Yvonne), Sandusky, Ohio; Ellen, Dayton, Ohio and Steven A. (Linda), Geneva, Fla.; Fourteen grandchildren, Matt A. Taylor, Marc A. Taylor, Stephanie Taylor, Adam Taylor, Mitchell R. Taylor, Joshua A. Taylor, Gene S. Taylor, Michelle M. Taylor, Erika D. Taylor, Ryan J. Taylor, Emma G. (Kollie) Carsey, Ethan W. Kollie, Aric B. Terwilleger, and Zachary S. Taylor; Thirteen Great-grandchildren. She was a great fan of NASCAR. She made many canvas needlepoint projects, which she donated to Florida Health to raise money for nursing scholarships. Here is a poem she wrote as a child that her children think speaks volumes about her. Our Saviour By Luanne Tinker (age 13) and Jane Stark (age 12) We have a precious Saviour, Will you answer to His plea? He's calling, yes, He's begging, "Won't you come to Me?" When the road of life is ended, Will you be within the fold? Then you'll be glad the story Once to you was told. When on earth you've liv'd your life, And your work is done, You'll be glad to go up there To be with the precious One. So, if to you He's calling, Please accept the Saviour's love, And then you can go with us When we go above! Memorial contributions may be made to Florida United Methodist Children's Home.
