Rosalie Faith Arroyo

FEB 2, 1966 - NOV 12, 2015

Rosalie Faith Arroyo, 49 died on Thursday November 12, 2015 in Deltona. She was born February 2, 1966 in Worcester, MA to parents Faith Estron, Margarita Ramos, Ivan Ramos. Rosalie is survived by Her Daughters, Celines Ayala and Alene Foley and her Nieces, Ashley Lozada, Awilda Lozada, Karina Ayala, Julissa Ayala; Brothers, Michael Toledo, Jose Toledo, Franko Arroyo, Jose Robledo and close friend and Brother-in-law: Antonio Ayala; Sisters, Sylvia Ayala, Shirley Travieso, Dania Arroyo, Milagro Arroyo, and Donna Ramos; Grandchildren, Christina Foley, Lucas Ayala, Syla Ayala Legg. Once Employed by Wackenhut Security as an Armed Security Officer. Rosie enjoyed various music and loved to sing. She loved her action/thriller and horror movies, a huge STAR TREK and comic book movie fan, Mom loved to crochet, and had also sewn various clothing herself. She was an avid Carousel horse collector and used to enjoy looking into the twisted minds of people to get a better idea of how they ticked, because she had a bit of a twisted comedic quality about her. She loved telling stories, especially those that would make her audience laugh, and boy did she love to laugh. My mom loved her little dog Lady very much and would make silly voices for her and dress her up in silly outfits to make her look "cuter". My mother loved God and tried to the best of her abilities to live a life he would be proud of. She enjoyed her family very much and doted whatever time she had to them. Both my mothers were thick as thieves and almost literally did EVERYTHING together. She was an adoring Grandmother, and what little she could provide, she would give to them. No matter what, Rosie will be missed and loved dearly. She saw beauty and good in everything and everyone around her. She never trusted easy, but when she did, she was almost too good to a fault. She brought so much headache, but so much joy at the same time. She would want her loved ones to celebrate her life and remember her as the wonderful friend and confidant she was with the abundance of happiness she left behind. A Memorial
