My sincere condolences to the family of Colin Anderson. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) While grief at the loss of Colin is great, joy at welcoming him back in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5;42) With deepest sympathy,

There are those people that come into our lives that truly make a difference. Colin was one of those people to me. I had the honor and pleasure of being his 5th grade teacher. He was such an energetic, positive, and kind presence. I am grateful to you Casi for putting him in my room and giving me the opportunity to share a part of his life. Colin- you will be missed by so many. Every time I look at pictures from school, I will be reminded how amazingly bright and funny you were. Keep smiling.

To Family ,So sorry for your loss ! May you find peace in your happy memories . God's word the Bible , provides the greatest comfort of all.The Christian apostle Paul stated "I have hope toward God ...that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous ." (Acts 24;15) Thinking about the bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one and Jehovah always keeps his promises .
