William 'Billy' Howard Boon Jr.

OCT 3, 1981 - OCT 21, 2012

William Howard Boon Jr., 31, passed away unexpectedly on October 21, 2012. Known better as Billy, he was born on October 3, 1981 in Orlando and raised along the east coast while his father was in the Navy and returned to the Orlando area in 1996. Billy is survived by his wife Nikki Boon and their child William Howard Boon III ("Liam"), who is expected to arrive in January 2013. He is also survived by his father William "Bill" Howard Boon, mother Patrice Boon, Brother Shaun Boon and sisters Kellie Boon-McIntosh and Heidi Boon. Grandpa "G-pa" Russell Davey and Grandma Beatrice Davey, and many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins that loved him dearly. Billy was married on May 8, 2011 to his wife Nikki Boon and they lived in Winter Park where he had previously attended Full Sail University, graduating with an Associates' degree in recording arts and a Bachelors' degree in music business. Billy had a passion for music and went by "Troublesome" when he was playing a set in Orlando or any surrounding area. Billy is remembered best by his friends and family for his genuine bright smile and sense of humor. He had a love for all sports but was sure to be found in full FSU attire when it was game day during football season. Billy walked this earth for a short time, but will forever remain in the hearts of those that knew him. A memorial service celebrating Billy's life will be held on Thursday October 25, 2012 at 7:00pm at Baraklaff Family Funeral Home, Saxon Ave Orange City, FL.

My heart is breaking for Nikki and Liam...and Billy's family...Life is so fleeting...we blink and everything we thought we knew has changed...the only thing that is constant is each and every memory we hold in our hearts. The hardest thing we will ever do is to lose our loved ones that go before us...it can be terrifying on so many levels...we will never see that person in their human form again (although I choose to believe they show themselves in so many other ways; so keep your heart and eyes open to that), we may fear for their peace, we may fear for our own peace and mortality... but we may also learn so much from losing a loved one...dignity, grace, forgiveness, humility... I know words will not bring Billy back, or even make anyone feel any better, but holding on to the love of so many that loved Billy and that love Nikki and their baby, may bring a little smile to your heart... Choose to allow the love to flood your heart over the anger of losing someone too soon...finding the peace takes time...this I know...I am also thinking of you, Billy, and hoping you may be able to find the peace you deserve...I am so very sorry this has happened too soon...
