- - Prayer to Jesus, Our Bread of Life - -In Jesus, who rose from the dead, our hope of Resurrection dawned. The sadness of death gives way to the bright promise of immortality. Lord, for Your faithful people life is changed, not ended. When the body of our earthly dwelling lies in death, we gain an everlasting dwelling place in heaven. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in Peace. Amen.

- - Immortality - - The souls of the just are in the hand of God and no torment can touch them.They seemed in the view of the foolish to be dead and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us utter destruction.But they are in Peace.For if before others indeed they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality.Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself.As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself.Wisdom 3:1:6

So many people see in death nothing but a cruel separation from loved ones. Even good and religious people make that sad mistake. In death there is certainly the very real pain and sorrow of physical separation. But it is equally true that our loved ones remain with us. They do not just go off to some dark and distant place. They simply continue into eternal life. We do not see them because we are still in the darkness of this world. But their spiritual eyes, filled with the light of heaven, are always watching us as they wait for the day when we shall share their perfect joy. We are born for heaven and we end this life of tears to begin our life of endless happiness. You are in our prayers. God bless you always.

Mike and I know what you all are going through right now, especially Frank and Maria. Our prayers are for each for love, support and peace from Aunt Mary's passing but you know she is free from pain and suffering and is with God in heaven and with all her family and loved ones who have preceded her. What a joyous reunion she will have. I am so blessed that we got to meet and be with her the times we had the opportunities and consider that a special blessing. She was a wonderful aunt to take Frank and Maria and bring them up as her own and I know she was proud of both of them as she told me when I first met her, and you could see it on her face. Also, it was God's blessing that she got to share some of Marla's young life and also Maria's children. She loved her family so much. What a lovely legacy she is leaving behind. Gone but never forgotten.
