Memaw, you were a great inspiration to me. It was a great treat getting to see you when we could. You would teach me something new that would help me in my walk in life and your smile helped me remember there's nothing too bad to keep people form smiling. I love you memaw and I'll never forget you and the kindness you left with us all.

Frances you were a grand mother I never really had. You set the example of such a well rounded individual. You were a parent, a adult, and now matter what the age you still were able to share with us the inner child. We will miss you but we rest in the faith that you are home with our heavenly father. Love Tom MEMAW..Thank you for the gift of love, now you're sharing it up above.You had many things to say and they were always in a caring way.No matter what they've done, you always saw good in everyone. You were always the one we could all lean on. You always gave our family so much strength and faith. Now we must let you go ...As we say goodbye, tears roll down our eyes. I know your place in heaven is always what you dreamed it to be. I know you will always be watching over us as you always have. You always taught me to love everyone, care for all, and to always remember that we don't know their situation. Thank you Memaw for teaching me to love the Lord as you always did. 1 Thessalonians 5.16-18 Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances.
