Remember me always with a smile
Remember me with happiness
Remember me always, without worries.

From time to time you won't see me
I went to heaven
I don't want to see you cry
and I don't want to see you suffering,
I just want you all to be happy
in God's name

with us, we are glad to know that you are not alone and that already your big sister Alanna is showing you all her favorite spots in heaven.

You were so tiny. Still Daddy said you had enough energy in the first few seconds of life that you managed to kick your feet as you were pushed into the world. We wished that the doctors could do something to save you but we understood how fragile your body was and how anything they did would've done more harm than good.

We kept you with us for ten hours and we hope that in the first few minutes of life that you were able to feel us holding and kissing you, for although you were not breathing, we could still see your heart beating and it meant everything in the world to us to know that you were still alive in the first ten or less minutes while we held you.

Although we are seperated, know that you will forever be in our hearts. Our first Baby Boy. Know that Mommy and Daddy love you and your sister very much. That we'll pray for you and send our thoughts to you everyday.

Love Always, Mommy and Daddy.

Words can even express How much I love you and your sister. Your mommy and daddy need both of you to look out for them and give them strength. They love you both so much. I was glad your mommy let me share your arrival with her even if it was just for a short moment. One day my angel we will meet again. Love you know and forever grandma.
