Aww so many memories. Here are just a few..I loved hanging out with the Marx family and eating dinner there is was all very exciting to me. At dinner everything was in order and George day at the head of the table:) Another memory is of when I went to Puerto Rico with and Sheila. One night Jean and I came home in the wee hours of the morning only to run into George in the elevator coming to look for us. George didn't say much but the look in his face really explained it all. Love you George now you are with your Creator 🙏
