Connie, my heart breaks for you and pray for your strength to cope with this terrible loss. Mike as well as yourself have been great neighbors for 15 years. Mike helped my husband in so many ways and was very supportive when I lost my sweet Buddy. There are no words to describe the pain and sorrow you feel right now but know the Lord has taken his hand and will take him home. Mike will always be missed and his memory will be bright and full of love. God bless and take care. With deepest sympathy, Jean Hutchinson

Connie, My deepest condolences on the passing of Mike. I enjoyed working with him in the Maintenance Dept of Lake County Schools. As our Director, he always fought hard for our department and was a great team leader. I enjoyed the times we were all at the American Legion, especially when you two shared a slow dance on the dance floor. The love you shared and the way you held each other was so beautiful to watch. May your family, friends and your lifetime of memories give you peace and strength during this difficult time. Barbara Powell
