We had just met Bill a week or two before at church when God sent him to us one day at Lowe's in a direct answer to prayer. Uncertain what to do, and not really wanting to hire it out, we literally sat down on some patio furniture and prayed for guidance about a necessary house project. Two minutes later, here comes Bill walking down the aisle because he was going to do a similar project. He generously shared his knowledge and later physically helped us accomplish part of the project as well. We really appreciated Bill's friendship and fellowship. From our earthly perspective we are sad that God called him home, but we know he now sees his Savior face to face! We miss you, Bill, and look forward to that day when we can worship together again!
