Priscilla was a dear friend to our family. We became friends with her and her late husband Patrick while stationed together in the Air Force on Guam in the mid 1980's. She was particularly close to our adopted son Chris-- We stayed in close touch over the years. I know she will be embraced in heaven--a very good soul!! We will miss her

My incredible Grandma Priscilla was the most amazing woman!! She never missed our birthdays or holidays and it was her cards that I cherished every year!! Grandma took so much time when we were together to show me how to cook, and was always smiling and laughing!! Unless you did something wrong and then she was looking at you from over her glasses, but even then it was never mean, she just wanted to be sure you heard her!! I know she is back with Grandpa Patrick, smiling down on us all and dancing with him again!! We love you so much Grandma!! Till we meet again xo

Priscilla was the sister I never had. She always paid attention to the little things that really mean so much. Christmas cards, birthday cards she always let you know she was thinking about you even if you didnt possess the same thoughtfulness as she did.
