“ God bless you Eddy. You will be missed. You coached my quartet Music Makers way back when we all were younger. We cherish those wonderful memories we shared with you. You were so full of heart and so very talented in your own right. We of course love Jan and knew her well. My heartfelt sympathies to Jan and your family. RIP my friend.

“ I have so many pleasant memories of Edward. It was always something special to look forward to when Edward came to Binghamton to visit Joan and Mac. Especially remember many Christmases sitting at the piano in my living room listening to Edward sing. What a great voice he had! Also remember a Barbershop Quartet concert my husband and I attended and were invited after the concert to what they called the After Glow. That was a huge highlight for us! It was so much fun and Edward was a great host. Wonderful memories Edward, you will be missed by all who knew you. Judy Saar

“ I was so sad to hear of Eddy's passing last weekend and wanted to share one of my many great live recordings of him. This performance was a practice session for his quartet called "Tradewinds" in front of the Bryn Mawr PA Barbershop Chapter. They sang 2 sets which usually featured Eddy's golden-throated tenor post on the tonic in the tags. His most famous quartet association was a 20+ year history with the Easternaires which was an International competitor for many years. I recorded him well here as I hope you will agree. Enjoy!
