

Felix Manuel Centeno

June 4, 1946 - November 25, 2017

In tribute to the great soul to ever walk this earth. The patriarch of our family; who spent his life not only serving his country but also to his loved ones. His love was unconditional and knew no boundaries. Felix, your loss is more than an absence, its an eternal void that will never be filled. Those who came into his presence were privileged to make his acquaintance, to the family he was a lord sent blessing. Honoring an irreplaceable father, loving husband, amazing grand father, protective son and last but not least endearing friend. " The fear of death follows from the fear of life. A man who lives fully is prepared to die at anytime" -Mark Twain. From a man to father your life was spent surrounded by people who loved him and will carry on your legacy in every breathe that we take till we meet again.

“ I will be forever grateful to my father for picking responsibility for me when i was too young to do it myself. Due to some poor choices i made when i was just a child myself. Although we didnt see eye to eye all the time we were able to agree to disagree. Thanks for raising my daughter and never giving up on her! My last few days with you were full of laughs and im so glad they were just like that instead of tears! I know you knew it would be our last time being able to spend time! I must say you had jokes for days and thats exactly how i will remember you. Love you FOREVER! May the angels in heaven embrace you and comfort you in the glory heavens paradise. From your oldest daughter Melissa Ann Centeno
